

WARNING

DO NOT STORE THESE ITEMS IN THIS CLOSET

Brown College will loose its closets if Housing finds any of the following:

- 1.) Cooking and heating appliances (except microwaves),
- 2.) Items that Use Open flames (including, but not limited to, Tiki Lamps, candles, incense, oil lamps, and houkas)
- 3.) Combustible items (including aerosol cans)
- 4.) Lighter fluid (Charcoal is acceptable, though, as are regular matches.)
- 5.) A Mess. The floor must be clear to walk through.
- 6.) Halogen Torchiere Lamps,
- 7.) Extension cords (multiple-outlet connections are permissible only with a built in circuit breaker and U.L. approved),
- 8.) Live Christmas trees and any other item which the University determines to be dangerous or illegal.
- 9.) Any combination of Collected or assembled flammable materials or materials that constitute a fire hazard. This includes the use of candles or other open flames. (Candles are permitted for decoration, but make sure that the wick is unused, or cut it off if the candle has been burned in the past.)
- 10.) Flammable Paints (Latex paints are allowed. Flammable paints [such as acrylic-based paints] are strictly prohibited.

These rules may seem a bit onerous, but the spirit behind them is simple: the safety and happiness of Brownies is the responsibility of all of us. Please use your good judgment.